

A list of Manuscripts and Tunes available online

Henry Atkinson Fiddle Manuscript index. This is a fiddle MS from c. 1695 with some exceptional 'bagpipe' tunes. This page links to the FARNE website where the Manuscript is stored. The index lists the tunes alphabetically.

Robert Riddell's A Collection of Scotch, Galwegian and Border Tunes 1794, index. The index to this unique publication links to Ross Anderson's website where the MS is stored.

John Smith's fiddle manuscript index. This link will download an index to the section of the Northumbrian Melodies Committee's collection which contains John Smith's tunes, originally dated 1750

The Rook Manuscript index. Upwards of 1260 airs selected by John Rook, 1840

Ross Anderson's music pages. A major source of early manuscripts, publications and recordings of all kinds of UK piping. Essential stuff.

William Vickers fiddle MS 1770 (sorry, no index yet) 500 or so tunes from a Northumberland fiddler; taken together with The Rook MS, probably the nearest thing to a complete summary of the repertoire

<http://www.asaplive.com/archive/results.asp>

should you want more, try http://folkopedia.efds.org/wiki/List_of_historical_tunebooks,_some_of_which_are_available_on_the_internet and Jack Campin's page; 561 tunes in abc format, including most of the most common lowland repertoire

<http://www.campin.me.uk/Music/Chalumeau.abc> and a vast amount of lowland music in issues of Common Stock; thirty years of issues available to members online and searchable: an index to music in Common Stock is in preparation and finally, for early GHB settings of Lowland tunes see

<http://www.ceolsean.net/>